Wendell Philips, in his lecture on "Street Life in Europe," the other night, he gave one little instance of street life in America. Thackery, on his visit here many years ago, was anxious to see a genuine bowery boy, and a friend pointed out to him one of those now defunct specimens leaning against a lamp-post, with his hands in his pockets, his soap-locks carefully regulated over his eye-brow, and his cigar tilted upright between his teeth. Thackery was delight ed and determined to interview the "monster." So he strode, with his man- CHEAP FOR CASH, ly sweeping gait, carrying that ever-present benignance of expression on his face, up to the boy and remarked, very innocently: "Sir, excuse, me, but I would like to go to Broadway." The boy returned the look with one equal benignant, and replied: "Well, why in h—I don't you go?"

I Toto You So.—An old lady who was in the habit of declaring, after the oc-currence of any event, that she had predicted it, was one day cleverly "sold" by her worthy pause, who, like many others we wot of, had got tired of hear-ing her eternal "I told you so." Rushing into the house, breathless with exnent, he dropped into a chair, elevated his hands, and exclaimed:

"Oh, my dear, what do you think? The old cow has gone and eaten up our grind stone!"

"I told you so! I told you so! You always would let it stand out o' doors.'
